The Lagos Hustle: A Tale of Grit and Grind

Let me gist you a little story. Meet Tobi, a young shoemaker from Mushin. He had big dreams of growing his handcrafted footwear business but lacked the resources to compete with big brands. Frustration set in until one day, someone whispered, “Have you tried 7hubent Tech?” With skepticism, he joined their free advertising WhatsApp group. Within weeks, orders started rolling in. Today, Tobi runs a thriving business with clients even outside Nigeria.

His secret? The power of free advertising and networking with like-minded entrepreneurs in forums like 7hubent Tech.
